

Agreement #[blank]

This is just a quick agreement between us and QuickDeal Suppliers. Not a big formal thing, just putting stuff down so everyone's on the same page.

This agreement starts ASAP or basically once both sides agree to it. There's no exact date written down here, but it's effective once signed or agreed to in whatever way.

The deal runs for about one year or so, depending on how things go. If everything's working fine, we'll keep it going, otherwise we'll figure it out later.

Total cost for everything is around $20k, give or take. Not an exact number, just an estimate based on what we think we'll need.

Payment will be done monthly. We'll send invoices and they should be paid when received or shortly after. No strict payment rules written here.

This is a purchase order type of thing for office stuff and supplies. Just general items, nothing too specific listed out right now.

That's pretty much it. More details can be added later if needed.
